About Qatar Navigation

Qatar Navigation was established in July 1957, as the first public shareholding company registered in Qatar and holds commercial registration number (1). The aim in establishing the company was stimulating growth in the Qatari economy through the provision of shipping, transportation, and handling services necessary to link Qatar with the rest of the world. The company has since evolved, expanded and diversified into maritime transportation, port management, shipping agencies, logistics services, ship repair and fabrication, commercial activities, as well as real estate development and asset management.

Qatar Navigation owns 100% of Qatar Shipping (Q-Ship) as well as Halul Offshore Services Company (HOSC) – one of the largest specialized companies in the region in the provision of offshore marine services to the oil and gas sector. Qatar Navigation also has a 50% stake in Qatar Quarries and Building Materials Company, a 30% stake in Qatar Gas Transport Company (Nakilat), and owns 50% of Gulf LPG. The Company has smaller stakes in a number of other associated companies.

Qatar Navigation (QNNS) is a publically listed company on the Qatar Exchange and almost represents 5% of the Qatar Exchange Index. For further details please visit the company's website www.qatarnav.com or see the company's results on the Qatar Exchange website www.qe.com.qa.
