- 5- Consider the discharging of the Board members from their obligations, and determining their remunerations.
- 6- Presenting the tender on appointment of the auditors and determining their fees.
- 7- Election of members of the Board of Directors, if required.

* Article (44) has been added based on the resolution of the extraordinary General Assembly meeting held on 15/3/2017.

* Article (46) has been amended based on resolution of the extraordinary General Assembly meeting held on 16/3/2016 in line with the Commercial Companies Law No. 11 of 2015, and resolution of the extraordinary General Assembly meeting held on 18/3/2015.

Article (48)*

The Ordinary General Assembly shall convene at least once a year on the date and place specified by the Board, after approval of the Department, within the first four months following the end of the Company's financial year.

The Board of Directors shall invite for a General Assembly meeting whenever it is required to do so, and the Board of Directors shall invite for a General Assembly meeting whenever the Auditor demands. If the Board fails to invite for such a meeting within fifteen days from the date of the demand, the auditor may invite directly for such a meeting, subject to obtaining the Department's approval. The Department shall decide on the demand within fifteen days from receiving it.

The Board shall also invite for the General Assembly meeting whenever one or more Shareholders owning at least (10%) of the capital so requested and for serious reasons, within fifteen days from the date of the request. Otherwise, the Department shall upon the request of these Shareholders shall invite for the meeting at the Company's expense within fifteen days from the date of the request. In the two foregoing cases, the agenda of the meeting shall be confined to the subject matter of the request.

Article (49)*

For the validity of the Ordinary General Assembly meeting, it is required:

1. The Department shall be invited, in order to send its representative for attending the meeting.
2. Attendance of a number of Shareholders representing at least (50 %) of the share capital. If this quorum is not available for the meeting, the General Assembly should be invited for a second meeting held within the fifteen days following the first meeting, pursuant to the provisions of Article (121) of the Commercial Companies Law.
3. Presence of the Auditor of the Company's accounts.

The invitation shall be delivered at least three days before the meeting date. The second meeting shall be deemed valid, whatever the number of shares are represented in it.

The resolutions of the General Assembly shall be adopted by the absolute majority of the shares represented in the meeting.

Article (50)

The Extraordinary General Assembly shall convene upon the Board of Director's invitation or upon a written application addressed to the Board from Shareholders representing at least one quarter of the shares. In this case, the Board of Directors should invite for an Extraordinary General Assembly meeting within fifteen (15) days from the date of taking delivery of the application.

If the Board fails to deliver the invitation during the said period, the applicants may request the Company Control Department to invite for the meeting at the Company's expense.

Article (51) *
